CONVENTION CLOSED.
 Epworth League Held Missionary and Consecration Meetings—Board of Control Meets Today.
 INDIANAPOLIS, July 24.—The Epworth convention formally adjourned last night to meet in San Francisco in 1901. Incoming trains Sunday brought thousands of visitors, and it was estimated that the number of delegates had reached the 20,000 mark.
 The visiting ministers filled city pulpits in the morning and the afternoon was devoted to missionary conferences. Last night Hon. F. D. Fuller, Topoka, presided in the tent. Rev. J. F. Berry, Chicago, at Tompkins hall; Rev. J. H. Bickel, Chicago, in the opera house; and Rev. W. B. Chapman, Louisville, at Roberts Park church.
 Rev. John F. Goucher of Baltimore delivered an interesting address on the mission work in India. He has returned from an inspection of the missionary stations in that country, and spoke of the progress of the Epworth League. He had with him 30 flags from Indian pulpits.
 Bishop McCabe, "the chaplain of liberty prison," spoke of the missionary work in the south.
 Other speakers of the evening were Rev. Alonzo Monk, Chattanooga; Rev. W. F. Wilson, Hamilton, Ont.; Rev. G. W. Briggs, Owensboro, Ky.; Rev. W. L. Harvey and Rev. S. L. Baldwin of New York.
 At the close of the addresses farewell cooperation services were held. In the tent the services were conducted by D. W. Potter, Chicago; Bishop Fitzgerald, Nashville; in Tompkins hall; Rev. L. W. Munhall, Germantown, Pa., in the opera house, and Rev. G. J. Bond in Roberts Park church.
 These services consisted of testimonies by the delegates, hundreds of whom spoke in the tent meetings.
 At the close of the benediction was pronounced.
 The board of control began its meeting today, which will probably last till Wednesday. Bishop Nind of Detroit is chairman of the board.
 The most important matter to come before the board will be the question of federation of the young people's societies.

STREET CAR BLOWN UP
 Riotous Scenes Mark the Cleveland Strike.
 SIX BADLY HURT; ONE FATALITY.
 Two Policemen, One of Whom Had Shot a Woman, Saved From Probable Lynching by a Priest—Cars Blocked and Stopped—Troops on Duty.
 CLEVELAND, July 24.—A Euclid avenue car, loaded with passengers, was wrecked by an explosion of nitroglycerine of car cotton.
 The injured were:
 Mrs. E. C. Martin, 79 Alanson street, compound fracture of skull, right arm broken and internal injuries. Likely to die.
 F. A. Smith, both legs broken.
 E. C. Martin, right arm badly cut and both legs and both feet.
 Mrs. Catharine Starke, 23 Cornell street, suffering from nervous prostration.
 Albert E. Cassett, 12 Wallace place, legs injured.
 Dora Schneider, 11 Oakdale street, bruised about the body.
 Three or four others, not seriously.
 The explosion tore out the front end of the car, smashed all the windows and destroyed the brake. After considerable difficulty the car was stopped and a call for ambulances was sent out. The motorman, William Draeglers, who came from Cincinnati, was dazed by the shock, but the conductor, Frank Schroeder of St. Louis, escaped injury.
 The force of the explosion was so great that it shook all the houses in the neighborhood and was heard for a distance of two or three miles. There is said to have been a mob of persons who placed the explosive on the track. Persons living in the neighborhood say they saw a man in a buggy stop at the corner of Kensington street, where the explosion occurred, and get out by the railroad track. He remained there a short time and then drove rapidly away.
 July 24.—The rioting was renewed in this city and there were several serious outbreaks of violence, but no clashes between the mobs and the troops.
 Cars were started running as usual on all but one or two lines. The mobs were astir early. A thousand or more persons gathered on Burton street, on the South side, and proceeded to obstruct the tracks. When a car came along with two policemen on board it was attacked with a shower of stones. In spite of the police-men the non-union motorman and conductor were roughly handled. One of them, named McDermott, had two ribs broken, and the other was badly bruised.
 When the policeman fired at the mob, the bullet striking a man named Wenneick. The mob assaulted the officers, both of whom were struck repeatedly with stones, and but for the intervention of a priest of the Catholic church near at hand the officers might have been lynched. By this time three cars had been mixed up in the melee, and a patrol wagon load of police arrived. The rioters were dispersed and the cars were taken back to the barns.
 There was a serious disturbance on the Broadway line at the corner of Pettie street, where a mob of 3,000 assembled and obstructed the track. Finally a car came along from the Wilson avenue barn, having on board Sergeant Barrows and a private of militia and a detective. The officers ordered the mob to disperse when the motorman attempted to remove the obstruction from the track, but the rioters showed fight. The sergeant Barrows and the one soldier, with fixed bayonets and the mob and attempted to clear the way. There was a sharp fight for a few minutes, during which a perfect shower of stones fell about the detective and the soldiers, smashing the car windows.
 No one was seriously hurt, and after assisting two of the rioters and placing them on the car it was returned to the barns. The police afterward charged the mob, making several arrests.
 The military on guard at the Holmden avenue barn, on the South side, were annoyed by a jeering mob, and the arrests were made there with the assistance of the police.
 A mob of 1,000 conceived the idea of blocking the cars on Orange street by placing a big boulder in the middle of the street and building a fire around it. The plan worked successfully, and cars were stopped for nearly an hour, when the police drove the mob away, put the fire out and gave the street railway men a chance to move the stone. Three men were sent to the hospital, with wounds made by policemen's clubs at the end of this riot.
 As a result of the shooting of the driver of a grocery wagon in South Broadway Saturday afternoon by a non-union conductor, the mayor of the village issued an order to the marshal to arrest all non-union conductors who carried concealed weapons. Every car was stopped and each conductor found with a revolver was arrested. All were subsequently bailed out by the company.
 A small riot was started at the corner of Pearl street and Franklin avenue when a young woman struck a man who asked her to board a non-union car. A crowd of union sympathizers stoned the man and a squad of police finally cleared the way.
 The company sent a note to the state board of arbitration declining to arbitrate the differences, in which it says: "This company fully appreciates the sincerity of your desire to bring about a readjustment with its former employees, but says that the men who went out on Monday last are not in the employ of the company, and there is nothing to negotiate about or to arbitrate."

ACTION ON LYNCHINGS.
 Italian Charge's Query Followed by a Telegram to Louisiana's Governor For Particulars.
 WASHINGTON, July 24.—Count Vinchi, the Italian charge d'affaires, called at the state department and made representations to the officials concerning the lynching of five Italians in Louisiana.
 In order to get full information as a basis for his action by this government, Secretary Hay thereupon telegraphed the governor of Louisiana, requesting all the facts.
 Count Finchi's action was based on reports from the Italian consular office in Louisiana and by the press reports. There is reason to believe also that the Italian foreign office is already fully informed on the occurrence. It is probable, however, that the representations are only preliminary, with a view to showing attention to the facts reported and to have the way for any protest or demand of reparation which may follow.
 Assistant Secretary Hill, expressed the

SMOKE REGRET ENTERTAINED BY THE GOVERNMENT
 No message had come from the foreign office at Rome.
 A dispatch from Tallulah, La., said that the five Italians had been living in Madison parish for some years and had filed their declarations to become citizens. None had applied for naturalization papers.
 Rome, July 24.—The Popolo Romano, referring to the recent lynching of Italians at Tallulah, La., said the United States had given assurances that it will prosecute rigorously all who were concerned in the commission of the crime.
 The Tribune declared that the lynching was due to the knowledge that Italian immigrants to the United States were not afforded proper protection and might be attacked with impunity, and called the attention of the Italian government to the matter.
 PHILADELPHIA, July 24.—A man giving his name as Percy Parsell, and claiming to be an artist, was arrested here on the charge of swindling Charles M. Schwab, president of the Carnegie Steel company of Pittsburgh, out of about $2,000, which was advanced to him on his agreement to paint the portraits of the members of the Schwab family.

A WELCOME TO ALGER
 Plans Made For the Reception In Detroit.
 AN INDIGNATION MEETING PLANNED
 Pingree Had His Way, and One Is Scheduled—Alger Issued a Statement Showing He Originated Plan to Return Prisoners to Spain.
 DETROIT, July 24.—Plans for the reception of Secretary Alger upon his return to his home city, which were partially completed at a meeting held here, provide that General Alger will be met by the reception committee at some point enroute from Washington. On arrival he will be met by all the marching organizations of the city which are to join in the demonstration. The general will be escorted to the City Hall, where a formal presentation to the gathered crowds will be made in front of the hall by the mayor and gov. rnor. Then there will be a public reception in the corridor of the City Hall, followed by a meeting, probably in Light Guard armory, where opportunity for the expression of the sentiments of prominent citizens will be had.
 Governor Pingree, during the meeting, favored the idea of holding a genuine "indignation" meeting following the public reception. Mayor Maybury raised the question whether such expressions would be of any use, and proposed General Alger rather than otherwise, but the governor's mass meeting idea prevailed.
 WASHINGTON, July 24.—Secretary Alger always felt a pardonable pride in the success with which the war department met the tremendous problem thrust upon it by the necessity with which it was suddenly confronted during the war with Spain of suddenly disposing of the thousands of Spanish prisoners captured in Santiago province. The history of that time had not been fully told, and it remained for Secretary Alger to supply the need by a bit of reminiscence.
 He said that on the night of July 9, 1898, the president asked him what in his judgment should be done with the Spanish prisoners, after their capture, this being before their capture occurred. He suggested Galveston, and the president concurred. The next morning the idea occurred to him to send them back to Spain. He further said in part that he "went to the White House and laid the new plan before the president, saying that it would be an unprecedented procedure, and a most gracious act; that to ship the prisoners to Galveston would be half the distance; that we should have to clothe, shelter, guard and feed them there, and no doubt have to ship them back to Spain in the end. I also stated that I believed that it would be a great inducement to the Spaniards to surrender, when the general shatter afterward assured me was the effect."
 The president readily approved the plan, and on the same day he cabled General Shafter.
 Then follows some of the official correspondence with General Shafter and the Spanish general, which would be an unimpeachable procedure, and a most gracious act; that to ship the prisoners to Galveston would be half the distance; that we should have to clothe, shelter, guard and feed them there, and no doubt have to ship them back to Spain in the end. I also stated that I believed that it would be a great inducement to the Spaniards to surrender, when the general shatter afterward assured me was the effect."
 "The ratios for the prisoners were inspected by a United States government official, and this government paid for the transportation of the prisoners, $113,850. The same number carried by the other companies under their bid would have cost the government $1,312,915. Here was $894,000 saved to the United States, and probably as much more in demurrage.
 "Some days after this contract was awarded the president said to me as I entered the cabinet room: 'Secretary, would you like to hear something favorable to you printed in the New York Times?' and went on to read the official comment complimentary to the man whose mind originated the plan of transporting the Spaniards back to Spain."
 ROOT EXPECTED TODAY.
 To Confer With the President Regarding His New Duties—Alger Congratulated by His Successor.
 WASHINGTON, July 24.—Hon. Ethel Ross, who is to succeed Secretary Alger at the head of the war department, has telegraphed the president that he will be here today. Mr. Root desires to have a conference with the president respecting the duties of his new office, before the former leaves for Lake Champlain.
 President McKinley sent him a telegram, in which was made a tender of the position, and an answer was received from Mr. Root, accepting the honor.
 The announcement of Mr. Root's appointment was made at the war department. It was stated that Senator Platt came to Washington armed with authority from Mr. Root to accept in his name the war portfolio.
 The president was heartily congratulated by members of the cabinet on the very satisfactory selection he had made. One of the first to do so was Secretary Alger, who happened to be in consultation with the president when the latter received Mr. Root's telegram of acceptance.
 Mr. Alger gave expression to his approval in the following note, which he wrote to Mr. Root:
 "WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21, 1899.
 My Dear Mr. Root:
 "All I know is what the newspapers say that you are to succeed me as secretary of war. Since it comes to you, I most earnestly urge you to make the sacrifice and accept the position. With your knowledge of law and your excellent health, you can serve the country in a way far more efficient than I can."
 "R. A. ALGER."
 Secretary Alger addressed the following telegram to Mr. Root at 10:30 a.m. on receipt of his acceptance of the war portfolio:
 "Accept my best congratulations and thanks."
 G. A. R. Engagement.
 PITTSBURGH, July 24.—The crowd was so great at Rock Point yesterday at the 21st state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic that the supply of food ran short. It was estimated that more than 5,000 visitors were on the grounds. In the morning services were conducted on the pavilion by Chaplain John W. Sawyer of Philadelphia. He preached a splendid sermon, taking for his text the tenth verse of the twentieth chapter of Deuteronomy, containing the words, "And all people of the earth shall see that Thou art called by the name of the Lord, and they shall be afraid of Thee."

They have prepared for the use of women in general, five preparations for improving the complexion and the hair.
